

"25 minutes of English"

Lesson 6.

Topic: "Entertainment".

Date: 06.06.16

S Task 14a. Fill the columns of the table below with hobbies and entertainment activities you know. Note that one and the same hobby can have several characteristics and go into more than one column.

Energetic	Educative	Risk-taking	Practical	Relaxing
football	reading	scuba-diving	pottery	TV watching

Explain your choice of hobbies for each column.

Example:

I think that reading is an educative hobby, because you learn a lot from books.

Task 14b. In a small group talk about leisure activities, and fill in the table below.

Would like to try – would never try leisure activities that I already do	leisure activities that I don't do but would like to try	leisure activities that I would never try

Task 14c. Read the texts and then choose the best hobby for each of these people from the text in Task 15 or any activities you already know.

Amanda is an accountant and spends most her day working alone. She has several hobbies – she makes her own clothes and enjoys gardening – but she would like to be out of the house and meet people.	Mark has a very stressful job in an insurance agency. His friends think he is a workaholic and he does not have much time for hobbies. However, he would like to find a hobby which is both stimulating and relaxing.	Donna used to be a teacher, but she has been unemployed for almost a year. She spends most of her day reading but is now getting very bored. She is also very worried about her future.	Ray is a machine operator. His job is tiring and very monotonous. He spends most of his free time watching football and listening to jazz, but he would like an active, creative hobby which would give him more personal satisfaction.
