

Task 20. Complete the sentences with the correct possessive pronouns.

1. Linda Johnson is a lieutenant. It was ___ own decision to join the Army. (hers / her)
2. You have taken my helmet. – No, it's ___. (my / mine)
3. Their house is very similar to ___. (our / ours)
4. They are observing the enemy. That's ___ task. (theirs / their)
5. Look at the tank. ___ tracks are damaged. (its / it)
6. John's parents were against ___ decision to join the Army. (hers / his)

Task 21. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate possessive pronouns.

1. Corporal Evans has broken ___ arm. He's in hospital now.
2. It was a great idea of ___ to visit the castle! Thank you.
3. It's ___ fault and you will be punished.
4. Henry borrowed some books of ___ and now I need them.
5. "Good morning, sir. ___ Identity, please." – "I'm Major Robinson. Here's ___ ID card."

R

Task 22. Read the text and find words from the box. What may they mean?

ancestor	memorable	adore	polite	greet
see somebody off	emergency	beverages	opportunity

Flight Attendant

Hi! My name is Chelsea and I want to tell you about profession of my dream. I always dreamed to become a flight attendant. I find this profession interesting, romantic. I don't know why I like this profession so much, maybe someone from my ancestors were connected with aviation. I want to have this profession in future. I'm sure that only this profession gives me a lot of memorable impressions.

I understand that I don't want to do anything else. Only this profession can bring me happiness, and I will say that I have found place in my life. It is perfect when you adore your job, isn't it?

I think, flight attendant post is not hard. Of course, you have to know foreign languages, basically English. You have to be friendly, polite with passengers, contact with them. Flight attendant has to greet and to see passengers off. Flight attendant has to demonstrate emergency procedures, serve food, beverages, and maybe sell duty-free goods.

This profession gives you opportunity to travel and see new places, communicate with people of different nationalities. That is why I want to become a flight attendant.

Task 23. Answer the questions.

1. Why does Chelsea want to have a profession of flight attendant in future?
2. Is the profession of flight attendant hard? Why? Why not?
3. What must a flight attendant do on board?
4. What opportunities does this profession give?